THE CORVETTES

Southern California's Most Authentic Doo-wop and Motown Show Band
Information Summary

DESCRIPTION:

THE CORVETTES are a five-piece rock and roll show band (four male, one female) celebrating the music of the first twenty years of rock and roll, from approximately 1954 to the early seventies. Orchestration includes drums, bass, guitar, and keyboards. The "front line" singers belt out the tunes, complete with wigs, steps, and tight harmonies that made the music famous. The act includes tributes to the "legendary" artists of the period, from "doo-wop" to rock to soul, from Sam Cooke, Elvis, and Dion, The Four Seasons, to Sonny and Cher, The Four Tops and The Temptations. Costumes, makeup, and choreography are appropriate to the concept, and can be tailored for casual or black tie occasions. Personnel include an original former member of SHA NA NA.

The members of the CORVETTES have been entertaining San Diego area fans since 1988. The CORVETTES continue to be the only area band featuring streetcorner doo-wop sounds, while providing an evening of entertainment all ages will enjoy.

THE CORVETTES customize their shows to the appropriate occasion, and can provide a full evening of continuous rock 'n roll dancing, or a thirty minute revue glimmering with sequins, pom-poms, and gags.
